Mail Fraud Complaint

The form below allows you to send a complaint to the U.S. Postal Inspection Service if you suspect you are a victim of mail fraud. Reporting identity theft on-line is a separate form.

Although the Postal Inspection Service cannot resolve routine business disputes between companies and their customers, it can act against a company or individual if there is a pattern of activity suggesting a potential scheme to defraud. Completion of this form is voluntary, but the more information that you enter, the better the Postal Inspection Service may be able to help.

Please note we may share the information you provide with other agencies when a possible violation concerns their jurisdiction. Read the Contact Us page for more information.

If this is an urgent matter, immediately contact your nearest law enforcement agency. You may also go to the Federal Trade Commission site for more information.

Explain Your Problem

Tom Barrow is running for Mayor of Detroit. Tom Barrow was convicted of 11 felonies years earlier. During his recent run for Mayor, he has repeatedly and intentionally lied to voters, telling them his 11 felony convictions were being reversed. In September 2009, an appeals court ruled all 11 felonies, including his felonies for bank fraud and filing false financial
